Mr. Manley:

As to whom it may concern:
Excuse such salutation -

I wrote you previously concerning a baseball player.
I understand you may have letters of this type flowing in every hour.
But I would appreciate it very much if you give this one a little consideration.

I wish to introduce to you
Dave (Little Dave) Jackson.

One of the finest pitcher out of organized baseball. A terrific hitter with equal fielding ability.

Just drop me a card, telegram or special and we will be at the Palo Alto Grounds Sunday ready for any test or trial you have on can I offer at such time.

Gentlemen or Mr. Monley just give us 3 innings on that mound Sunday and you'll never regret it.

Thanks a million
Ps. (Waiting your reply) Mr. J. M. Crote

This places you under no obligation whatsoever —
Thanks again
